

Hi Delegates!

My name is Jessie Hinson (She/Her) and I am your CD for NYUMUNC XV's ADHOC. I am a senior majoring in International Relations and Anthropology at NYU's College of Arts and Sciences. I am also pursuing minors in Spanish and film. I have been staffing conferences and competing with NYU's Travel Team for Model UN since my sophomore year of college. I was the Director of Joint Crisis Committees for Empire MUNC XI in the fall and I have been a CD and ACD in the past.

Outside of school and work, you'll most likely find me in a coffee shop reading or, if the weather is nice enough, in a park, reading a good book. I love traveling, exploring the city with my friends, watching tv shows/movies, and ice skating. When I get the chance to go back home — I'm originally from North Carolina — I spend as much time as I can hiking in the mountains where I grew up.

I have been working on this ADHOC idea for a very long time and I'm extremely excited to watch it come to life over the course of the conference weekend. I can't wait to see the creative backroom arcs and innovative solutions you all bring to the committee we have been building. Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions before or during the conference!

Best,
Jessie Hinson, ADHOC Crisis Director
